JOKES

A sailor rushed up to the Officer of the Deck in such excitement that he stammered and stuttered. The officer lost patience with him and said, "Sing it out, sailor, sing it out!"

The sailor drew a deep breath and began to sing:

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?
The Admiral's fallen overboard—
He's half a mile behind."

A grouch walked up to the box office, stuck his nose through the little hole in the ticket window and sneered, "You advertise popular prices and yet you charge a dollar and sixty cents to get in. You people must be crazy. Do you call that a popular price?"

"Well," replied the cashier, "we like it."

A man wrote to a hotel for reservations and asked if dogs were allowed.

The hotel manager answered his letter as follows:

"I've been in this business for thirty years. I have never had to call the police to eject a disorderly dog. Never has a dog set fire to a bed with a cigarette. I have never found a hotel towel or blanket in a dog's suitcase. Certainly, the dog will be welcome.

"P.S. If your dog will vouch for you, you can come along, too."

A sweet little old lady asked a clerk at the post office to weigh her package for her because she was afraid she hadn't put enough stamps on it.

The clerk weighed the package and said, "You've put too much postage on it."

"Oh, dear," replied the little old lady, "I do hope it won't go too far!"

Jack and Joe each owned a horse, but they couldn't decide which belonged to whom. They cut the mane off one horse so they could tell them apart. But it soon grew back. Next, they cut the tail off one, but that also grew back. They were at a complete loss as to what to do. Finally, in desperation, they measured the two horses and found that the black one was four inches taller than the white one.

ANTLIONS

Antlions or Doodlebugs are familiar insects to every youngster who has ever played in dry sandy places. Most antlions dig funnel-shaped pits in which they trap other insects that stumble over the edge and slip down. The antlion, hidden in the sand at the bottom, grabs the victim with its long, sickle-shaped mandibles. When the helpless prey attempts to climb up the side of the pit, the loose sandy side crumbles beneath it or the antlion throws sand at it by snapping its head. This generally knocks the prey down into the pit again. The antlion sucks the juices from its catch, then flips the shell of the body out of the pit.

JOKES

Archie: What is big and red and eats rocks?

Ronni: A big red rock eater.

Betty: Archie, if you drop a white hat into the Red Sea, what will it become?

Archie: Red?

Betty: No, silly, it will be WET.

Miss Grundy: Who defeated the Philistines?

Archie: Sorry, Miss Grundy, I don't follow the minor leagues.

Jughead: Archie, let's eat lunch.

Archie: OK, let's eat up the street.

Moose: But Arch, I don't like cement.

WATCH THE MIRACLE OF BIRTH HATCH AMAZING SEA-SHRIMP!

A Sea-Circus of Your Own!

You'll hardly believe your own eyes! And you'll amaze everyone who sees this! Think of it. We send you a packet of tiny powdereggs. You empty this into a fish bowl—a jar—or glass of water—and in 24 to 72 hours, you watch them hatch out into live, swimming, diving, playful Sea Monkeys!

See them grow from almost pin-point size to the size of tropical fish! Watch them perform crazy acrobatics. Train them, if you wish, to follow a beam of light. Darken the room and throw a flashlight or candle beam on them. They'll follow it like a band of monkeys running after each other!

Watch Them Perform—Amazing!

These are the famous Saskatchewan Brine Shrimp. They're a hardy, crazy bunch. See them perform acrobatics in the water—turn cartwheels—scratch each other's backs, wheel and turn in formation—or just chase each other in a game of tag or follow the leader.

Hours of fun—day and night—for young and old. You can even change their colors! They hatch white, pink or red. But put a drop of vegetable dye in their water and see them change color to match. Watch how their internal organs show against other colors—study their life processes—mating and breeding—so that, in time, you get more and more—to give away or sell as you please.

Hurry! Get Your Sea Circus "On The Road"

And, all so easy! Even a child can grow them. No care required—little feeding—keep them warm and there you are. You've never seen such fun or had so much enjoyment from raising anything! Send now—and get started. Supplies are plentiful but don't be disappointed. Get your Sea-Circus today—be first to show them off to friends and family. Send only $1 plus 25c PP & Hdg. (Sorry, no C.O.D.'s) We ship at once—with complete instructions—and we guarantee you'll be thrilled or your money back! Mail Coupon.

Bonuses go to any winners of the first eleven prizes who own a bicycle with a Bendix® Automatic Gear Shift and Power Brake at the close of the contest! 1st prize bonus—$1,000! 2nd through 11th prize bonuses—$100 each!

CLUES To help you win. See your dealer for a demonstration. He'll show you how the Bendix Automatic shifts gears by merely back-pedaling 3" . . . why there are no hand controls or cables to kink or break . . . why hill climbing is a cinch . . . how you shift gears and still keep both hands on the handle bars for complete safety. Look for the 3 red bands that tell you it's the long-lasting Bendix Automatic. Ask Mom or Dad to help you with your entry.

RULES 1. Use the entry blank below, an official entry blank obtained from a bicycle dealer, or a separate sheet of paper, and PRINT in 25 words or less the ending to the following sentence: "The Bendix Automatic Gear Shift and Power Brake makes a bike more fun because. . ."

2. Any boy or girl can enter this contest who has not reached his or her 15th birthday before September 1, 1963.

3. Entries will be judged for neatness, originality and aptness of thought by panel of judges selected by R. L. Polk & Co. Judges' decision will be final.
